EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Peter Dichiara on December 12, 2005.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 11, line 2, after "8F²" insert --, wherein F is a minimum feature size--.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-19 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: there is no disclosure in the prior art of an electromechanically-deflectable nanotube switching element in electrical communication with one of the gate structure and the control gate structure and positioned to be electromechanically deflectable into contact with the other of the gate structure and the control gate structure, wherein when the nanotube switching element is in communication with both the control gate and the gate structure, the control gate may be used to modulate the conductivity of the channel region.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
